

To Whom it May Concern,

Stoa is pleased to announce it will be holding its first Silent Auction on May 25 and 26, 2022 at its National Invitational Tournament of Champions (NITOC).

Stoa is a national speech and debate league for homeschooled Christian youth, that trains students to Speak boldly, changing the world for Christ. Hosted by Christian universities, Stoa invites approx. 600 top ranked homeschool competitors and their families from across the nation. To get to NITOC, local Stoa clubs host over 100 tournaments across the country each year that give students an opportunity to hone their speaking and presentation skills.

To learn more about Stoa and its accomplishments, please visit stoausa.org and click on the “About” tab. There you will find our latest Annual Report, Mission and Vision statement and can meet our leadership.

Stoa is a non-profit, 501(c)3 organization. Our Tax ID# is 27-0837507. Please consider donating a quality item, service or experience at a level suitable for your giving goals.

When making a donation, we invite you to include a small stack of brochures or business cards (if applicable) to display at the auction. For additional information about Stoa, fundraising efforts or sponsorship/vendor opportunities, please email us at info@stoausa.org.

On behalf of our volunteers, families and students, thank you for your generosity and support.

In Him,

Angela Childress
Executive Director

Stephanie Dropping
Fundraising Chairman